

EILEEN CICCOTELLI BIO

Eileen Ciccotelli is Vice President of the Virginia Business Coalition on Health (VBCH). She serves as VBCH's project leader for value-driven health care initiatives such as The Leapfrog Group Hospital Survey, the Heart Disease and Stroke Prevention ToolKit for Employers, Virginia Health Strategy Project and the annual employer Summit. Prior to joining VBCH, she held positions at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center (UPMC) Health System, the Arthritis Foundation and the American Red Cross.

Ms. Ciccotelli earned a Masters in Public Management from the Heinz College of Public Policy and Management at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology with a minor in Gerontology, and a BA in Social Welfare from Seton Hill University in Greensburg, Pennsylvania. She is a native of Western Pennsylvania and relocated to Chesapeake, Virginia in 2002, where she and her husband Patrick reside.

She serves on a number of committees relating to policy and employee and population health quality outcomes, including the Virginia Department of Health Heart Disease and Stroke Prevention Alliance, and is a board member (President in 2010) for Virginian's Improving Patient Care and Safety.
