

Business & Health Summit 2007

ABOUT THE MODERATOR

Lee Dukes

Senior Vice President
MATRIA HEALTH ENHANCEMENT
COMPANY

Lee Dukes is Senior Vice President of Wellness Solutions for Matria Healthcare. Lee has more than 27 years of workplace health promotion experience, having served as President of HealthInvest, Associate Director of Behavioral Health at the Cooper Institute, and Director of the Campbell Soup Institute for Health and Fitness. He has served as Vice President and Board Member of the Association for Worksite Health Promotion, Vice President of the National Association of Governors' Councils, and Director of the North American Networking Workshop on Health and Fitness.

Lee has helped design and implement wellness strategies for more than 450 employers and health plans, and every branch of the Department of Defense. He has worked with clients throughout the United States, and in Canada, Great Britain, Mexico, and Germany. He is frequently asked to speak on population health and social marketing issues at national and regional conferences.

Lee earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Mississippi College, where he was All-American in track, and his MBA from Temple University.